'Inside the O'Briens' was one of my favourite reads of last year (along with 'Reaching Down the Rabbit Hole'). It has the same sort of emotional grip of Genova's previous novel, Still Alice, but rather than most of the emotion being focused on the 'sufferer' a lot is focused on the family, who can see what may come to be, and who don't know if they want to know.

Inside the O'Briens : Lisa Genova : 9781471142925

In her debut, the focus was on early-onset Alzheimer's disease. Now, in her latest effort, INSIDE THE O'BRIENS, Genova uses her background as a neuroscientist and her talents as a novelist to explore the impact of a fatal genetic disease on a close-knit family. Joe O'Brien is the consummate Boston cop.
