This is the second book in the Fourth Realm trilogy. It wasn't as good as the first. But still enjoyable. There were parts that it seemed the author used as an escape and were unbelievable which I think the author may have done just so that he could keep the story moving and didn't make the story to long.

The Dark River : Book Two of the Fourth Realm Trilogy ...

After reading The Traveller, I anxiously awaited the next book in the Fourth Realm trilogy. When I finally read Dark River, I had mixed feelings about the book. I suppose the best way to capsulize it is to say, it's the middle book. Dark River did not live up to my expectations.

The Dark River: Book Two of the Fourth Realm Trilogy by ...

This is the second book in the fourth realm trilogy. I stated of the first book, The Traveler, that it was "the best fiction book I had read in a decade!" This book is a very close second. John Twelve Hawks weaves an unforgettable tale of suspense and drama that will draw you in and captivate you in a way that few other authors achieve.

The Fourth Realm Trilogy Un'altra recensione tardiva. Sono 3 libri che ho letto nell'estate del 2010, dopo essermi imbattuto nel primo della serie perché incuriosito da una citazione di Albert-László Barabási nel suo Bursts: The Hidden Pattern Behind Everything We Do (un altro libro letto e non recensito).
